Teacher Forum

Discover new ways to collaborate with Chelmsford Theatre

Tuesday 2 February 6pm to 7.30pm | Free tickets

We are closing our doors to the public for an evening to welcome teachers from across the county to discover new ways to collaborate with Chelmsford Theatre.

We welcome early years, primary, secondary, SEND, alternative provision and higher education practitioners to join us to learn how Chelmsford Theatre can best support you and your students. We are keen to host as many educators as possible, so have placed no limit on how many teachers can come from one establishment.

To register visit chelmsfordtheatre.co.uk and apply via the form on the Teachers Forum page.

TEACHERS. We have a wealth of resources available for students of all stages. From free education packs, private tours, career events and schools rate tickets for certain shows, we have everything you need to bring the magic of theatre to your class.

Dementia Accessible Cinema

Join us for these relaxed and welcoming cinema screenings designed with those living with dementia, their families, and carers in mind. Doors open at 12pm for tea, coffee and cake (available for a donation), with the film starting at 1pm. The lights are slightly up, the volume is gentle, with freedom to move around or talk if needed. Each film will have an interval to provide a break.

Everyone is welcome.
